

Dear Drainage Contractor

Thank you for downloading the National Association of Drainage Contractors (NADC) prospectus and application form (at the back).

The purpose of the prospectus is to make sure you have all the necessary information before joining the association.

NADC Prospectus

What are the Aims & Objectives of the NADC?

- To drive more business for members in the geographic areas in which they operate
- To provide training and certification and promote drainage professionals
- To provide commentary, guidance and advice on regulatory developments which are of relevance to members

Why should you Join the NADC? By the Industry, For the Industry

Until the formation of NADC, there was no recognised body that solely had the interests of the drainage contracting industry at the heart of its DNA.

The NADC is made up entirely of people actively working in the industry. This means that all those involved in the NADC have a vested interest in delivering a sustainable and profitable future for the industry based on quality and reputation.

The benefits of Membership

Membership of the NADC delivers the following tangible benefits for drainage contractors

- National recognition as a professional, reliable and responsible contractor
- Access to full industry leading national accreditation through recognised training for all aspects of drainage services offered
- Certification of the services you are trained to offer via Identification Cards
- Direction of new business available to NADC members only
- Preferred supplier status among large drainage services procurers
- Unique supplier offerings of products and services for NADC members only
- Special discounts on NADC approved training.

Who should Join the NADC and what does it cost?

All drainage contractors are welcome to join as full members and annual membership is only £350 for contractors with less than 12 vehicles (£700 for those with 13 or more vehicles).

Suppliers and other parties with a stake in the industry can also join for £350 per annum.

National Association of Drainage Contractors
Committed to Certified Drainage Contractors

How are member subscriptions used?

The NADC is a not for profit organisation. This means there are no shareholders to pay dividends to and all available funds are dedicated to moving the NADC forward

This comes down to:

- Attracting as many members as we can to build a strong Association (you can help by passing on details of the NADC to colleagues, suppliers and even your competitors.
- Being the 'recognised voice' for drainage contractors to help shape the future of the industry.
- Developing the tools and means of shaping the future of industry through a nationally recognised quality standard (DrainSafe) and creating an interactive community for members through the NADC website, meetings and other forums such as newsletters and bulletins.
- Driving new business to our members

What commitments do you have to Give?

There are only a few commitments you need to give to be a member of the NADC

- Commit to undertaking training and qualifications for the services which you offer within 3 months of joining
- Commit to a whole year's membership and subscriptions
- Commit to our Standards. Be qualified for the work you do, be insured, be professional and fair, have a complaints procedure, be proud of the NADC

Why you should take Action now and join?

The sooner you join, the earlier you can participate in shaping the future of the industry. The strength of the Association comes through bringing together like-minded business-people who share a common purpose – the long term sustainability of a profitable industry.

Annual membership

For contractors who have 1 to 12 Vehicles, membership costs just £350 a year (less than £1 a day!) A contractor with 13 or more Vehicles, pays £700 a year

Supplier membership costs £350 a year

All subscriptions can be paid by way of monthly direct debit installments
